

Our Policies

Thanks for the submission! Here at Fuzzy Sweater Productions, we have a few things that you need to be aware of before coming in for your live set. Please (PLEASE) have all band members read and understand this document. Policies are as follows:

1. The session typically consists of 2-3 songs unless otherwise specified. For both technical and stylistic reasons, sessions can not run longer than 20 minutes, so please plan accordingly!
2. The session is a live recording, with no rehearsal time allotted. Setup time for the session typically takes 30 minutes. Please arrive one (1) hour before the agreed upon session time to ensure there is enough time to set up equipment.
3. Fuzzy Sweater Productions reserves the right to cancel the production or the session at its discretion. We normally will give you over a weeks' notice, but this is not our full-time job and sometimes things come up!
4. We have all equipment needed to record video & audio for your full band, but we ask you bring your own music equipment, unless otherwise specified. If you want to know more specifically what we are working with, just ask!
5. Absolutely no tolerance for being a big ole weirdo. This includes using any forms of hate speech, being ultra-messy, being ultra-loud (when not performing) or otherwise being unpleasant. The space is a literal basement and also happens to be our home and we ask you treat the house, our roommates, neighbors, and hood with respect!
6. For both technical and stylistic reasons, we will determine where everyone is positioned during the set. We are working with limited space (see space layout) and this effects how both audio and video is set up.
7. Important copyright stuff! All music must be copyright originals only, owned by you. No covers, sorry! You give us the right to use the music for broadcast, streaming, and promotional purposes across multiple outlets. We do not own your music; we will not sell or control your music. You give us expressed permission to use the performance video for broadcast purposes and promotional use over multiple outlets (i.e.: social media, website, etc.)
8. We reserve the right to release the session on our schedule. If you would like your session to be part of an upcoming release cycle, we are very open to working something out. That being said, our goal is to provide a steady stream of content, so the timing of the session drop is typically at our discretion.
9. Participant(s) agree to indemnify Fuzzy Sweater Productions and hold harmless its officers and affiliates against any and all claims that may arise from the participant(s)'s breach of this agreement. In other words, if you violate these policies, we reserve the right to cancel business with you, no questions asked. By doing a session with us, you agree to all these policies!
10. Note: While COVID is going on, we ask that you do not bring guests, sorry about this one. ~~A maximum of five (5) guests can attend the session, unless otherwise specified. All guests must be quiet and respectful during the recording, and we reserve the right to cancel the session if guests exhibit behaviors of the aforementioned big ole weirdos.~~
11. Temporary Policy: We do our best to keep a clean and safe environment for everyone we have at Fuzzy Sweater Productions. Unfortunately, it is always possible for germs to spread and we take no responsibility for any sickness that may result from your session. WE WILL BE WEARING MASKS AND WE ASK THAT YOU WEAR MASKS WHEN NOT PERFORMING. Please, let us know if there is anything we can do to accommodate you!
